

Version 2

To migrate our schema to version 2 we would start by updating the users table to have a membership category. Each category of membership would have its own table with an id and capabilities. We would then add foreign key to the users_membership section to link the table and their allowable requirements. Last we would use an outside tool to perform the migration and store previous versions of our database.